Question 1

A hospital is setting up a wireless network using "Wi-Ei" technology to enable nurses to feed information through it onto the corporate server instead of using traditional paper forms. As a HIPAA security specialist, what would you do as the first step towards, protecting the wireless communication?

Options:

A- Set up a message digest infrastructure to enable secure communication.

B- Configure intrusion detection software on the firewall system.

C- Protect the wireless network through installation of a firewall.

D- Enable use of WEP keys that are generated dynamically upon user authentication.

E- Configure TCP/IP, with a static IP address for all the clients having gateway address of the server..

Answer:

A

Question 2

An example of a major VPN tunneling protocol is:

Options:

A- Vapor.741

B- L2TP

C- MD5

D- TCP/IP

E- PKI

Answer:

E

Question 3

Question Type: MultipleChoice

Which the most widely accepted format for digital certificates is:

Options:

A- BOOTP

B- X.599

C- Phage.963

D- Vapor.741

E- ASCX12

Answer:

B

Question 4

Question Type: MultipleChoice

This field in an X.509 digital certificate identifies that each certificate issued by a particular Certificate Authority is unique:

Options:

A- Kerberos ticket ID

B- PA ID number

C- CA ID number

D- Sender ID

E- Serial number

Answer:

E

Question 5

Question Type: MultipleChoice

Audit controls is a security standard defined in which HIPAA category (domain)?

Options:

A- Administrative Safeguards

B- Physical Safeguards

C- Technical Safeguards

D- Technical Services

E- Electronic Signatures

Answer:

C

Question 6

Question Type: MultipleChoice

This cannot be used to restore the original message:

Options:

A- Symmetric key algorithms

B- Asymmetric key algorithms

C- Message digest

D- DES

E- PSA

Answer:

C

Question 7

Question Type: MultipleChoice

Technical Safeguards include this standard:

Options:

A- Integrity

B- Incident Reporting

C- Digital Signatures

D- Message Authentication

E- Security configuration

Answer:

A