Question 1

Question Type: MultipleChoice

How often should Development Team membership change?

Options:

- A- Frequently in order to share knowledge.
- B- As needed, while taking into account a short term reduction in productivity.
- C- Never, as it conflicts with the Scrum process.
- D- As needed, as long as it doesn't impact productivity.

Answer:

B

Explanation:

It is not mandatory that the same team stay together, although it must be understood that any changes to the team will impact how they work together.

Question 2

Question Type: MultipleChoice

The Development Team should have all the skills and competencies needed to:

Options:

- A- Turn the Product Backlog items it selects into a potentially releasable product increment of functionality.
- B- Do all of the development work in order to handoff to the testers in the subsequent Sprint.
- C- Complete the project within the estimate as committed to the Product Owner.

Answer:

A

Question 3

Question Type: MultipleChoice

How much work must a Development Team do to a Product Backlog item it selects for a Sprint?

Options:

- A- An equal amount of time on analysis, design, programming, testing and documentation.
- B- As much as it has informed the Product Owner will be done for every Product Backlog item it selects in conformance with the definition of "Done".
- C- All development work and at least some testing.
- D- As much as it can fit into the Sprint. Any remaining work will be moved to a subsequent Sprint.

Answer:

B

Question 4

Question Type: MultipleChoice

What should the Development Team do if they are approached by someone outside the team and asked to add a "very important" item to a Sprint that is in progress?

Options:

- A- Add the item to the bottom of the Sprint Backlog.
- B- Replace an item in the current Sprint of equal size.
- C- Add the item to the top of the next Sprint Backlog.
- D- Inform the Product Owner so he/she can work with the person.

Answer:

D

Explanation:

Allow the Product Owner to decide what to do with the item as he/she is responsible for the flow of value.

Question 5

Question Type: MultipleChoice

Who manages the progress of work during a Sprint?

Options:

- A- The Scrum Master
- B- The Product Owner
- C- The Team Lead
- D- The Development Team

Answer:

D

Explanation:

The Development Team is self-organized, thus manages and decides how to manage their own progress.

Question 6

Question Type: MultipleChoice

Peter is a new Product Owner on a newly formed Scrum Team. Peter has projected a product completion date based on an estimated velocity of 21 completed points per Sprint. After the first 3 Sprints, the team has determined that their maximum velocity is 15 points and they are unable to create shippable increments at the end of each Sprint.

What is the best way to proceed?

Options:

- A- The Sprints have failed to produce shippable Increments there for opportunities to inspect and adapt is lost. The Scrum Master would encourage the organization to add more team members in order to increase the team's capacity.
- B- The Scrum Master would coach the team on improving their estimations and commitment to completing the Sprint Backlog.
- C- Extend the Sprint in order to complete the Sprint Backlog items.
- D- Inform Peter that the projected completion date is not correct. The Development team would estimate the remaining work to produce a shippable Increment and suggest making it "Done" before working on new features. Based on empirical data, Peter can adjust the completion date and decide how to continue.

Answer:
